

Intervet MPO Institute trains in Senekal and Polokwane

Congratulations and well done to the developing farmers and farm workers who attended training courses in Senekal and Polokwane. Through the excellent training offered by the Intervet MPO Institute for Dairy Technology, these people are now empowered with knowledge.

The candidates who attended an animal husbandry course on the farm of Johan Schimper in the Senekal district, are: Front: Susan Laka, Paulina Mokonyane, Augastina Moreki, Agnes Khoe. Middle: Tlabi Mokwena, Sameul Pejane, Samson Sehloho, Daniel Monamoli, Isaak Ramolahloane, Thabo Letsipa, Lucas Chauke (instructor). Back: Jacob Laka, Phillip Napo, Lefu Nkoala, Abram Bocheli, Johannes Napo, Daniel Mokone

On the farm of Danie Schimper in Senekal, these candidates successfully completed a course in artificial insemination. They are: Front: Agries Masiu, Malitta Lekaota, Martha Makoena, Lettia Lekhetho, Margaret Ramokoatsi. Back: Justice Mathebula (instructor), Andries Masiu, Ou Jan Masiu, Ephraim Napo, Daniel Masiu, Johannes Qhamakoane

A group of developing farmers from Rampletjiesfontein Agricultural Cooperative in Polokwane, completed a course on animal husbandry in April. Front: Hezekiel Matlamela (instructor). Middle: Violet Manamela, Edwina Mashiane, Salome Seeseteng, Rebecca Dibete, Gloria Manamela, Syllia Matlane. Back: Lazarus Malebana, Phillip Senasha, Salthiel Matsi, Frans Kwena Dibete (chairperson), Simon Manamela, Godfrey Lekta UM