

Intervet MPO Institute trains farmers of North West

The Intervet MPO Institute for Dairy Technology held training days for the developing farmers and farm workers of the North West Province. By receiving the proper training these farmers become empowered in the industry. (Photo pages sponsored by Ecolab)

Back: Julius Sebei (OP), Johan van Niekerk, Christo van Niekerk (Van Niekerk Brothers Farm in Delareyville) who acted as mentors to four farms in the Geysdorp area and Dr Hendrik Geldenhuys (veterinarian).
Front: Mita Solwane, Ester Moremi, Koos Dial, Looseboy Bankies and Windvoel Chabala

Caroline Makasda, Harold Molaslwe (extension officer), Dr Hendrik Geldenhuys (mentor and veterinarian) and Julius Sebei (OP)

Brown Swiss bull at Klipfontein

Dr H Geldenhuys treats cows with metritis

Dehorning calves

Dehorning milk cows at the Siyaya Dairy Project

Sam Moruakgomo from the Ramatlabama Mafikeng District harvesting his peanuts

Samuel Sethore's Japanese radishes in Geysdorp

Julius Sebei (OP, mentor), Moses Malo (farmer) and Dr Hendrik Geldenhuys (mentor and veterinarian) at Geysdorp

Julius Sebei (OP), Petrus Ngunduse, Dr Hendrik Geldenhuys (veterinarian and mentor) and Kobus Theron (mentor)